REPORTING DISFELLOWSHIPPINGS OR DISASSOCIATIONS

- Did you review the notes written on page 143 of the Kingdom Ministry School textbook?
- Promptly fill out an original Notification of Disfellowshipping or Disassociation (S-77) form and make two copies. Retain one copy for the congregation's confidential file and send the original and one copy to the branch office in a special blue envelope. These are to be used when sending S-77 forms to the branch office or when sending correspondence to the branch office regarding judicial or child abuse matters. Please do not use the special blue envelopes for any other correspondence.
- The branch office will stamp one copy of the S-77 form and return it to the congregation. After it is returned, place this stamped copy of the S-77 form with the congregation's copy of the S-77 form in a sealed envelope in the congregation's confidential file. The secretary does not sign and date the bottom of the S-77 forms until the named person is reinstated or dies.—See below.

REPORTING DISFELLOWSHIPPING APPEALS

- When an individual appeals his disfellowshipping, the chairman of the judicial committee should promptly contact the circuit overseer, who will then designate elders to serve on the appeal committee.
- The judicial committee should complete the S-77 forms (except for the date of announcement of disfellowshipping) and give them, along with whatever written records it has from the judicial hearing(s), to the chairman of the appeal committee prior to the appeal hearing.—See ks91 125.
- When the appeal case has been concluded, all written records from both the original and appeal committees should be placed in a sealed envelope in the congregation's confidential file.
- The appeal committee's report is to be in the form of a letter addressed to the branch office, using the appeal committee chairman's mailing address for the return address.
- It is to be signed by all the members of the appeal committee, with each one's name and the name of his congregation typed below his signature.
- The letter should provide a detailed summation of the appeal hearing and include comments that directly address the following questions: (1) Was there a Scriptural basis for the disfellowshipping? (2) Was there acceptable evidence to establish the wrongdoing? Explain. (3) Was the wrongdoer unrepentant at the time of the hearing by the original judicial committee? What convinces the appeal committee of this?
- If the appeal committee upholds the original committee's decision to disfellowship the individual, the appeal committee should make certain that the S-77 forms are filled out completely, including the date of announcement of disfellowshipping, and then mail the original and one copy of the S-77 form to the branch office in the same special blue envelope with their letter.
- If the original basis for disfellowshipping was invalid, but other valid grounds for disfellowshipping exist, new S-77 forms should be made out by the original committee, giving the proper information. The original and one copy of the new S-77 form along with the initial S-77 form and appeal committee's letter should be sent to the branch office.
- If both committees agree that the person should not be disfellowshipped, the individual should not be told this. Rather, the appeal committee should send the branch office the original and one copy of the S-77 form along with separate letters from both the original committee and appeal committee that supply sufficient details to give a clear picture of the reason(s) for their conclusions. Thereafter, the branch office will provide its comments.
- If the appeal committee and the original committee are in disagreement, the appeal committee should send the original and one copy of the S-77 form to the branch office with a letter giving the reasons for its conclusion and should include a letter from the original committee that expresses that committee's reasons for disagreement.

REPORTING REINSTATEMENTS AND DEATHS

- If the disfellowshipped or disassociated individual is reinstated or dies, the secretary should sign and date the bottom of the stamped copy of the S-77 form, check the appropriate box, and mail this copy to the branch office in a special blue envelope.
- The same information should also be recorded on the congregation's copy of the S-77 form, which should be retained in the congregation's confidential file.
