TO THE BODIES OF ELDERS

Re: Reimbursing Circuit Overseers' Expenses

Dear Brothers:

By means of this letter we would like to qualify somewhat the contents of our letter of June 5, 2009, regarding how to reimburse expenses that circuit overseers sometimes present at the end of their visit to a congregation or at the time of a circuit assembly.

That letter indicated that in the case of members of the religious order of Jehovah's Witnesses (which include circuit overseers, among others) the requested amount would not be paid directly, but rather through the branch (see the letter of January 5, 2017, for an explanation of which expenses may be reimbursed.)

However, that instruction does not apply to circuit overseers that serve under the auspices of a different European branch but who visit congregations and groups in our country that belong to certain European foreign-language circuits.

In order to determine what applies in the case of your group or congregation, please check the updated list of circuits found in jw.org, section Documents → Forms → Congregation → Congregation - Communication with the Branch. This list is found in the document Branch Departments as Recipients of Correspondence, available in pdf format. The column titled Branch specifies which European branch oversees that particular circuit. Having in mind this classification, there are two options to reimburse circuit overseer expenses:

1. The letter of June 5, 2009, applies exclusively to those circuits for which "España" is designated as the Branch.
2. In the case of the other circuits for which another European country appears as the Branch, reimbursement may be made directly for expenses presented; it should not be done through the branch. This payment should be recorded in the Hoja de cuentas using the option Salidas → Gastos Generales → Gastos reembolsados a voluntarios.

Obviously, there may changes in the organization of the circuits or the overseer assigned to each one, and this may affect the procedure. So when changes occur, please consult the aforementioned list.

We certainly appreciate your having in mind this adjustment, which will greatly simplify work at the branch. Receive an expression of warm regards and Christian love.

Your brothers,

Testigos Cristianos de Jehová
