TO ALL BODIES OF ELDERS

Dear Brothers:

From time to time, local authorities may inform you that a known sex offender is living in your area. They may provide the address of the individual and may state the nature of his criminal activity. How should the elders handle such an approach by law-enforcement agencies?

If the authorities inform the elders of the address of a known sex offender, the elders should list that address on the appropriate territory card as a “Do Not Call.” Thereafter, two elders can periodically make calls on that address in harmony with the direction provided in the January 1994 Our Kingdom Ministry “Question Box.” Following this direction will assist you in protecting the flock.—Isa. 32:1, 2.

It is a pleasure to cooperate with you in the preaching and teaching work assigned to us by Jesus. (Matt. 28:19, 20) With this letter we extend to you our warm Christian love and greetings.

Your brothers,

Watch Tower B. & J. Society
