Re: Kingdom Hall Contribution Boxes and Labels

Dear Brothers:

We have had a number of inquiries regarding the use of contribution boxes and labels. Therefore, we are pleased to provide the following clarification. Each congregation should have three types of contribution boxes available, as follows:

- “LOCAL CONGREGATION EXPENSES” For donations covering congregation local expenses. Funds collected in this box should be deposited into a local bank account in the name of the congregation. This would include what the congregation has agreed to contribute towards reimbursing a loan or for the maintenance of their own Kingdom Hall.
- “WORLDWIDE WORK” For donations covering expenses of local or foreign branches. Funds collected in this box should be sent to the branch at least once a month. Many congregations have found it convenient to have two of these boxes; one located near the literature counter and another near the magazine counter. We have no objection to this being done.
- “KINGDOM HALL CONSTRUCTION WORLDWIDE” For donations to support the Kingdom Hall construction program within Canada or abroad. Funds collected in this box should be sent to the branch at least once a month. All congregations should be given the privilege of supporting this program, even if they are currently engaged in a building project of their own.

At times, a congregation may also set up a temporary contribution box for donations to a local building project. The box would be removed once the project is completed. The Kingdom Hall Construction Worldwide box should not be removed because a local building project is underway.

Please contact your Regional Building Committee if you are in need of replacement “black on gold” foil labels as these may be difficult to obtain locally.

We trust the above information will be beneficial and send herewith a warm expression of Christian love and best wishes.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
