Re: Readers of Kurdish Arabic

Dear Brothers:

We have received a letter from the Netherlands branch. In this they request assistance in locating native speakers of Kurdish Arabic, often called Sorani, who would be available as readers of translated texts.

The brothers inform us that typically, these ones have come from Iran or Iraq and may speak Arabic or Persian. Therefore, if you have publishers in good standing that speak Kurdish Arabic fluently, please provide us with their name, contact details, and a brief report on their spiritual standing within the congregation.

We would appreciate a prompt response to our request. When replying please use the above reference.

Thank you in advance for your help in this matter and we take this opportunity of sending you an expression of our warm Christian love and best wishes.

Your brothers,

*Christian Congregation
