Re: Literature inventory

Dear Brothers:

We are writing to provide details regarding the semiannual literature inventory. All language-coordinating congregations should submit their inventory quantities using jw.org no later than March 15, 2014.

Inventory quantities may be submitted using the “Inventory Reports” option under the “Request Literature” section of the “Congregation” tab of jw.org. First, submit an inventory count for your congregation’s primary language. Next, take note of any additional links for reporting other-language inventories. You should submit an inventory count for each of these additional languages unless there is a congregation in that language in your Kingdom Hall Literature Group.

The Monthly Movement of Literature (S-28) form was recently updated and may be printed from jw.org as needed. Since the items listed on the form correspond to the items as they are listed on jw.org, only the latest version should be used.

Sign-language congregations: The Monthly Movement of Literature (Sign language) (S-28sl) form was recently updated and may be printed from jw.org as needed. Please use the S-28sl form to take a complete inventory of items on hand for February 2014. Then, use jw.org to submit your inventory for items marked “Submit” on the S-28sl form. After submitting your inventory quantities using the jw.org Inventory Reports feature, please send your completed S-28sl form to the Shipping Department using the jw.org Inbox feature. Be sure to include the words “Sign-language Inventory” in the subject line of the message. The S-28sl form sent to the Shipping Department should include a quantity for all of the items listed on the form. Please include your congregation number at the top of the form.

As soon as possible after the inventory reports have been submitted to the Shipping Department, the service overseer of the language-coordinating congregation and the language coordinator should meet to determine the quantities and items that should be shared with other congregations. Once it is determined how much literature should be shared, immediately adjust the figures in the “Quantity to Share” column on the “Maintain Current Inventory” page to make them available to other congregations.

Thank you for your attention to these details. We send our warm Christian love.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
