Thank you for your letter of November 6, enquiring whether your contributions are being used to pay for the court cases that are currently taking place.

We are not sure whether you have any particular court cases in mind. However, we can certainly confirm that donations to the worldwide work will be used from time to time to pay for legal representation in various courts. You will be aware from the website that we are fighting legal battles on a number of fronts. This is entirely what we expect, in harmony with Bible prophecy. — Matthew 10:17, 18.

Please accept our love and good wishes.

Your brothers,

*Christian Congregation
